Thomas Lehocky

MAR 18, 1958 - SEP 12, 2014

Thomas J. Lehocky, 56 of Oshkosh died unexpectedly at Mercy Medical Center Sunday, September 7th with his family by his side. He was born March 18, 1958 to Richard Sr. and Dorothy (Massura) Lehocky at the University of Chicago. Tom and his loving wife Jean married February 8, 1981 in Chicago, Ill. and moved to Green Lake, WI with their infant son Joseph in the summer of 1982. Tom and Jean operated a hot dog stand near Green Lake Marina selling the famous "Chicago Dog" to locals and tourists. That is also where Tom acquired his life long love of the water and started selling boats at Green Lake Marina.

Tom loved the water and you could find him somewhere in the middle of Green Lake greeting his loyal customers and friends. He was the happiest when his granddaughters and special helpers Colin and Ethan were around. His laugh was contagious, his loyalty and kindness were things to admire. Tom was the type of person that would help anyone he could, especially if children were involved. He enjoyed golfing, camping and catching local high school basketball games.

Tom is survived by his loyal wife Jean, sons Joseph (Rebecca), Thomas (Ashley), and Eric (Hannah) His four granddaughters CherishAnn, Hailee Blu, Hanna and Londyn.
