Loretta took many trips to Las Vegas with her daughters and experienced a few lucky streaks with her poker playing. She also enjoyed her monthly breakfast with her cousins and her weekly movie excursions with her sisters. Barley, her dachshund, always brought a smile to her face and was a wonderful companion. Loretta will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her. Loretta is survived by a son, Gary (Brenda) Kulibert of Rhinelander; two daughters, Linda (Larry) Schuhart of Oshkosh and Donna Crouner of Kannapolis, NC; a brother, Thomas (Gerri) Raddatz; five sisters, Laverne Patryn, North Adams, MA, Germaine (Angel) Alaniz, Schererville, IN, Delores (Charles) Wickman, Marlene Monday, and Carol (George) Frohrib, all of Oshkosh. She is further survived by six grandchildren, Heather, Heidi, Lance, Loren, Richard and Jonathan; three great-grandchildren, Connor, Cody and Maxwell; other relatives and dear friends.
