He rose to the Rank of Life Scout in the Boy Scouts. Early on he developed a passion for music that only grew throughout his life. He was a talented musician and could play a variety of instruments. As an Army dependent he lived in a number of interesting places with his family including five years in Japan where he enjoyed many cultural experiences. He was currently the co-owner and operator of Lake Fly Screen Graphics. A business he started with his brother seven years ago. He was survived by his parents, Gary and Mary, Paternal Grandparents, Marge and Russ, Maternal Grandfather, Bill Brownlea, Aunts and Uncles; Terri and Greg, John and Cookie, Will, Candace and Eric, Dan and Eileen, Steve and Linda, Jim and Susan. Throughout his too short life Shawn fought numerous medical problems and though he lost this final battle he was able to donate organs so that others might benefit. This final act was a very real demonstration of the kind and generous spirit that embodied Shawn. A private gathering will be held to celebrate and honor Shawn.

Dear Gary and Mary. I'm so sorry for your loss. I can think of nothing worse than to have to say "good bye" to one of your children. My thoughts are with you. Jeff
