Victoria Jean Schmidt

JAN 20, 1948 - FEB 20, 2019

Victoria Jean Schmidt passed away on February 20, 2019. Victoria “Vickie” was born on January 20, 1948 to Corrine and Harold Stadler.

On July 6, 1965 she married the love of her life Victor Schmidt. Together they had two children; Lisa (Jim) Kortbein and James Schmidt.

Victoria is survived by her husband, two children, five grandchildren; Nichole (Alex) King, Scott (Megan) Schettle, Joseph (Tabby) Schettle, Jocelyn and Emma Schmidt. She also has eight great-grandchildren; Nadia King, Hailey Schettle, Kaydan Schettle, Aeva Schettle, Ayden Schettle, Grace Schettle, Colton King, and Evelyn King. Victoria is further survived by her father; Harold Stadler, two brothers; Mike (Lori) Stadler and Doug (Cindy) Stadler, one niece; Amy O’Sullivan, and one nephew; Brad Stadler.

Victoria was preceded in death by her mother; Corrine Stadler, Aunt Elaine and Uncle Chuckie Kaufman.

Victoria dedicated much of her life caring for others, starting with her mother and then her father after her mother's death 35 years ago. She also cared for her Aunt Elaine and Uncle Chuckie.

Her true life passion was cooking amazing food and sharing it with those she loved. She would call and say “your plate is ready” and found humor in making fun of you when you cooked something that wasn’t up to her standards. Everyone who had the privilege of receiving some of her delicious food knew they were truly loved and will tell you that she is the best cook ever.

Victoria enjoyed buying her entire family Christmas presents and watching the kids open their presents on Christmas Eve. She loved her dogs and spoiled them.

One of her favorite spots was at their cottage up-north. She enjoyed watching the birds, bears, and fishing.

Jim and family., I am so sorry to hear of Vicky passing. She is in so many memories that I have, from the time of me first working at The Hour until I was a mom and she took care of Niki and Erica for me. They loved going to your house and all the time they spent with her. She was wonderful to them and for that I am eternally grateful. They are wonderful young women today and she played a part in that. I fold all my towels to this day the way Vicky showed me. There are so many memories. She was always there to help someone. So very sorry for your loss. I know it immense
