I always looked up to my Uncle Jimmy, beginning as a little girl. I did not see him frequently but he was always a hero to me, and I loved him immensely.

So many fond memories of he and Aunt Shirley's visits. Endless hours sitting around the table after a good meal or sitting on the front porch rocking the afternoon away with a glass of iced tea (maybe a bowl of banana pudding or slice of cake too) So much joy and laughter!!! Blood doesn't make family —love does ❤️ Uncle Jimmy we love you and will miss you!!! Jackie, Wesley, Dustin, Katherine, Nathan and Georgia Gross

My mom's brother. A hoot, to say the least. "Best sense of humor" in high school. Didn't see him too much growing up, since he was in the Army, but always enjoyed his laughter and teasing. He called me "Stinky"...that's another story. Rest in peace, Uncle Jimmy.
