Hi J ☐ We miss you more than words can say. Not a day goes by that you aren't in our thoughts and in our hearts. Your presence is still felt in so many ways, in the little moments, the memories, and the love you left behind. Gus miss you so much, especially. You were such a big part of his world, and still looks for you in the quiet moments. I know you're watching over all of us, guiding us, and wrapping us in that same love you always gave so freely. Please give my baby boy JoeJoe a huge and tight hug from us all here and tell him how much we miss and love him, everyday. 💜 Until we meet again, please know you are deeply loved, forever missed, and never forgotten. 💙👉

Dear J, As I sit here reflecting on the memories we shared together, my heart is heavy with the realization of how much we miss you. Your presence in our lives brought joy, laughter, and warmth that will forever be cherished. Though life has taken us on separate paths, the bond we shared remains etched in my heart.

Your passing has left a void that cannot be filled, and the echoes of your laughter resonate in our memories. I find solace in knowing that your spirit lives on in the love we continue to hold for you. Your absence is deeply felt, but your legacy of kindness and love continues to inspire us every day. We miss you more than words can express, and we carry your memory with us, finding comfort in the love we shared. With love and remembrance, Jess

Gone but not forgotten,passed on but still alive through us,you left this world so suddenlyand left the ones that love you stillso completely lost and alone.You left an empty space with your leaving filled only with pain and sadnessand a touch of anger too,it feels so unfair that you were taken and that we were separated so soon.Your still missed everydaymore then words can say, if tears could build a paththen we'd be together once again.Four months ago today that you've been goneand it's so hard to keep going on,I wish that we'd had just one more day but then one day more would've never be enough.The hollow, empty space within our heart is full of such pain today,we'd give anything to go back in timeand change that one fateful dayand have you with us once more.The only comfort that we can findis knowing that your still with us,your the guardian angel that looks out for Gus and us and I know that your in a better placebut that doesn't mean that I don't still miss you.I see your smile when I'm aloneand hear your laugh all of a sudden,I'm doing my best to be strong and go onthe way I know you'd want us tobut it's so hard without you here.Rest in peace today and always,know that your still loved more then words can sayand missed so much everyday,you'll always live on in our hearts.

My condolences & prayers to the family of my son-in-law James Hernandez. James was one of a kind. When my daughter Jessica first introduced me to him, I thought to myself he's a very serious guy & looks like a mafioso 🤔. As the days, weeks & months went by they got married & had a very beautiful wedding & I was one happy, happy momma 🥰. In the yr. of 2001 my grandson Augustus McRae Hernandez was born. James now had 2 sons to raise. You see that's why I say James was one of a kind cause, when he got married to my daughter he raised her son Manuel Joseph Granados the 111 as his own. James was very compassionate & a hard worker as well. He did a great job on raising his two sons. I went like about 4 x's to Wisconsin to visit them & when I did I really enjoyed every moment of it even though it was so hard and sad for me to say goodbye when I was getting ready to come back home to Fresno. One thing I can say is I really enjoyed their cooking especially because his barbecue skills were on point and I mean on point 🍷🍷. I also would include my homemade flour tortillas which, he really enjoyed. When James was eating he wouldn't see me staring at him but, I would see that he would tear a big piece of the flour tortilla and put food on it and shoved it in his month 😊. I'm soooooo happy that I got to know him & to have had him as my wonderful son-in-law. There will never & I mean never be another son-in-law to ever take his precious spot. I'm sure going to miss u dearly 😭😭. James was an amazing & interesting guy. ❤️ u & always will & to me u'll never, ever be 4gotten 😊
