He was full of life and always seeking a new adventure. His deep passion was teaching and seeing his loved ones succeed and grow throughout life. Jim's pride was the brightest when teaching teenagers and seeing the effect of sharing his wisdom.

He had an abundant amount of love for his family and friends. He enjoyed acting, and being a professional clown. He loved spreading his clowning legacy to his children through teaching them magic tricks and the secret to telling good jokes. (It's the timing)
