I met Milt about 5 years ago when his grandson Jeff & I started dating. We became buds quickly and before I knew it he was making me homemade raisin bread. His bright eyes warmed hearts and he will be missed. However, he left behind a wonderful family and quite the memories. God bless.

As a young boy (before drinking age) I remember spending time with my best friend, his son Steve at their house on Grove st and Milt was always in the garage puttering with some little project only to spend time out there having a beer. The fridge was always stocked with a barrel and a tapper in the door so the boys didn't waste much time to pour a nice cold one and have a great father/son b.s. session. Milt was very special and will be missed very much. Rest in peace Mr Koehler. Family friend, Ken Habeck
