Kayla Jean Barker

JAN 10, 1971 - JAN 12, 2024

Kayla Barker, nee Selbach, age 53 passed away to Heaven on January 12, 2024. Kayla was born on January 10th, 1971, to Karen & Gordy Selbach. Kayla grew up in Oshkosh and spent the majority of her life there. She graduated from Oshkosh West High School in 1989. She married Russ Barker in 2002.

Directly after high school, Kayla attended Fox Valley Technical College and earned her associate degree in Occupational Therapy. After working in the medical field, she subsequently earned a degree as a Registered Nurse. She worked on the Physical Rehabilitation unit at Theda Clark Regional Medical Center and thoroughly enjoyed being an RN.

Kayla loved people & talking with them no matter who they were. She was known to hug, console, compliment, energize and motivate everyone she met. She was soft-hearted and nonjudgmental and wanted to brighten others days. She would send random handwritten letters and cards to friends, acquaintances and family members with kind words, encouragement and compliments. She was a knowledgeable sports fan and of course, loved her Green Bay Packers. She enjoyed board games, cards, cribbage, following extreme weather, travelling, donating to various charities and family time. She loved going to the family cottage in Amherst, WI to relax and enjoyed watching her children play. Kayla had an extreme love of the English language, and therefore, reading and writing were very important to her. Kayla, above all, loved to laugh!

Survivors include her husband, Russ, her daughter, Brooke, her son, Bradan, her father Gordy Selbach, her brother, Doug Selbach, a sister Jenni (Paul) Geffers and their children. Other family members include her in-laws, Lori (Mark) Bray, Stan (Sheila) Barker, Alan (Kate) Barker along with their children and spouses.

She is further survived by aunts and uncles, Norm Krause, Art Selbach, Susie Schreiner, Kathy (Jerry) Akstulewicz, who along with their families, were very dear to Kayla loved talking about her children. She was was proud of them and will always be proud of them. Love never dies. Kayla was happy when her dad would take her for drives. She and her dad spent a lot of time together. Her dad took wonderful care of her and Kayla deeply appreciated his loving care. Kayla and I spoke of angels often . Now she has her angel wings! She is a believer in forgiveness just as our God is.

I loved it when Kayla called me one night and asked me to say the Lord's prayer with her on our phones. We did that together and I was honored that we were able to pray together. Jerry and I visited Kayla at her home after we visited some of our loved one's headstones. Gordy joined us and then we went to the Barkers home. We hung out and talked and talked . Jerry and Gordy. It was a great visit with lots of laughs and love . We watched the nature fields at the house and Kayla guided us through the wild life. We talked of the good old days and the fun times we shared together. Gordy, Kayla and I had a great time.
