Mary-Louise Lewis

JUL 15, 1936 - APR 14, 2024

Mary-Louise Lewis, the daughter of Norman and Irene (Luebke) Blanchette, passed away on Sunday morning, April 14th, 2024, from complications of heart failure.

Known to family and friends as Mary Lou, she was born on July 15, 1936, in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. She grew up in Oshkosh. In her high school art class, she was one of two people who learned how to construct and paint stage flats. That led to a lifelong love of the theatre.

The teacher who taught her was also involved in stage makeup, which she also learned from him. She graduated from Oshkosh High School in 1954. Afterward, she attended college at Wisconsin State College-Oshkosh, as it was known then.

She worked at Miles Kimball, then the telephone company, and then returned to Miles Kimball!

Mary Lou married future school teacher Richard R. Lewis on January 14, 1959, at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey; and they spent a year in Germany while he was in the Army. After returning to Oshkosh, she worked at Christensen's Lingerie.

In 1962, she became associated with the Miss America Organization at the local level. She produced and directed the Miss Oshkosh pageant for six years. Mary Lou went to the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey for the first time in 1965 with that year's Miss Wisconsin, Sharon Mae Singstock of Oshkosh, who placed as fourth runner-up, as well as in 1972 when Terry Anne Meeuwsen of DePere was crowned Miss America of 1973.

She continued her association with Miss America for over 50 years, including judging at many other state pageants. She was honored on stage at the national pageant in Las Vegas, Nevada for her volunteer service in January 2012, when, coincidentally, our second Miss Wisconsin, Laura Marie Kaeppler of Kenosha, was crowned Miss America. After the pageant moved back to Atlantic City, she attended for two more years, in 2013 and 2014.
