Jean E. Sitzberger

JUL 31, 1941 - SEP 21, 2024

Jean Ellen (Heroux) Sitzberger, age 83, passed away peacefully on September 21, 2024. Jean was born in Menasha, Wisconsin to the late Annette and Laurence Heroux. Jeanie attended St. Patrick Catholic Church and School in Menasha, Wisconsin; and graduated from St. Mary Catholic High School in Menasha, Wisconsin. She married Ralph Sitzberger of Oshkosh, Wisconsin at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Menasha, Wisconsin on May 5, 1962.

Jeanie worked with her husband, Ralph, at Oshkosh Glass Company in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. When not working at the glass shop, you would find Jeanie volunteering at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church and School, where she and Ralph were members after marrying. Jeanie loved to golf, garden, spend time on the water boating and kayaking, and ice skating. She also loved to scrapbook, something her family is even more appreciative than ever now. They built and lived in their dream house on Lake Winnebago for more than 30 years, a place they lovingly named “Ein Sommer Platz” after Jeanie’s favorite movie, A Summer Place, which was also Jeanie and Ralph’s first date. They threw the best picnics and parties. Most Sundays in the summer, you could find the entire family gathered on the dock and in the water.

Jeanie and Ralph spent their retirement years in the Red Pine Cabin as they called it, in Land O’ Lakes, Wisconsin; she loved every season in “The North Woods”. She loved being in the middle of all the goings on and was very involved in the Land O’ Lakes Community; including St. Albert Catholic Church where she sang in the choir. She was the Deputy Town Clerk for Land O’ Lakes. Her favorite place to be was anywhere her family was gathering. Jeanie was a very special lady to many; and most special wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and now the best Guardian Angel in Heaven.

Jean is survived by and her memory will be cherished by her husband, Ralph J. Sitzberger, and her children: Jana (John) Carrick of Cedarburg, Wisconsin, Susie (Robert) Whittaker of Oshkosh,

My deepest condolences to all of the family. Jeanie was such a bright light of love, hope, and all the goodness in this world. Her beautiful smile and gentle care for all she knew and loved will leave a lasting impression on the many lives she touched. I will cherish the memories made during my time with Jeanie. Thoughts and prayers that the family may take comfort in the lifetime of love and memories created and in knowing that she is home with our Lord and resting in peace. With love and deepest condolences, Elisa Kuri and family.

My deepest condolences to Ralph and the family. Jean was a very gifted, special woman with always a smile when seeing her. She was extremely talented and served her Land O'Lakes community and Saint Albert Church well. Saint Ann Altar Society of Saint Albert Church will have a Mass celebrated in memory of Jean. May she rest in peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with Ralph and the family. Sue McPartlin, Sec., Saint Ann Altar Society
