Julie A. Hart

SEP 12, 1949 - MAR 30, 2025

Julie Ann Hart, 75, died on March 30, 2025. She was welcomed by Jane and Jerry, her Parents, and God who were anxiously waiting for her at the pearly gates with arms wide open to welcome her. Julie passed away, unexpectedly, at Aurora Medical Center surrounded by her family.

Julie was the daughter of Jerry and Jane (Ostertag) Panske. She was born on September 12, 1949 in Oshkosh.

Julie was married to Jim on August 31, 1985 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Oshkosh.

Survivors include her husband, Jim Hart of Oshkosh, two daughters Amy Hart and Lisa Hart of Green Bay, sister Jean (Richard) Derber of Oshkosh, nieces and nephews Wendi (David) Porior of Tennessee, Loree Nigl of Oshkosh, Scott Derber of Neenah, Lindsey Quednow of Oshkosh. Brother and sister-in-law's Fred Hart of Berlin, Patricia (Larry) Schranck of Idaho, Ed Hart of Berlin, Leanne (Kenneth) Hansen of Berlin, and many nieces and nephews.

Julie was a creative person in so many ways. She was a hairstylist for 45yrs, along with owning her own beauty salon for over 30yrs. Doing hair was Julie's passion and she was very good at it. Julie also used her creative skills when it came to cooking and baking. She loved to have a home cooked meal ready for her family to eat at night, even while working full time and being a business owner. If someone had a party, work event or it was a holiday you could bet on her to whip up a delicious dessert for you. Julie also loved to have her house blooming with flowers and plants. She was very creative when it came to arts and crafts and always handmade gifts, signs and anything and everything you could think of. She loved to travel and sightsee. If she wasn't working hard she was enjoying herself with her family on vacation. You could always count on her to have a new and adventurous destination each time. And sports, she loved to watch her Wisconsin sports teams. But above all she loved to watch her daughters compete in each of their sporting events. She was their number one fan in sports and in life. Julie was a woman who cared for others, and if someone was in need you could count on her being there.
