Obituary

Maralee Hamilton

JAN 24, 1930 - MAY 13, 2025

Throughout mom's life she enjoyed gardening, traveling and her relationships with friends and family. She was a hard-working woman with lots of spunk and made the best pie crust in the world! Although she suffered more than her share of heartaches in her life, she maintained a loving and sweet spirit. We will miss her more than words can express.

We would like to thank the staff at Evergreen Retirement Community for the loving care and comfort they have provided the last 4-1/2 years. They were very special to Mom. Also, thanks to Generations Hospice who were there for her and the family in her final days.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Maralee was such a sweetheart. She was my Aunt and as a kid, I always loved her sweet, timid and almost a little shy personality! As an adult, with Barrett Family Reunions, a lot of us cousins then found out Maralee was a spunky and fierce defender for my Dad, Warren (the youngest) and also her other younger siblings! 😊. There were a few stories of her chasing boys down the driveway, if they treated her siblings poorly. 😊 I believe she was a pretty talented artist as well. She will be missed 🙏. Prayers and hugs to all of her family.
