Audrey E. Clausing

OCT 20, 1938 - DEC 28, 2025

Audrey Elda Clausing, 87, of Oshkosh, passed peacefully into the arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on December 28, 2025 following a brief illness. She was born October 20, 1938, in Green Bay, WI, to Ferdinand William and Clara Caroline (Mueller) Howard. She married Clarence Clausing on September 10, 1960.

A devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and cherished friend, Audrey found her greatest joy in time spent with others. She loved sharing meals, engaging in a spirited game of any kind, watching sports with friends, and attending every family gathering she could. Audrey graduated from Sevastopol High School and later earned her chef's degree from Milwaukee Area Technical College. Her love of baking and cooking carried her from a life of farming to a career as a chef in restaurants throughout Wisconsin. She also enjoyed reading, gardening, bible study, doing puzzles, spending precious time with her grandkids and great grandkids, and traveling the world. Audrey will be fondly remembered for her adventurous spirit and her deep appreciation for the beauty of a simple life.

Audrey is survived by her son Curtis (Therese); her daughter Doris (Morgan); her grandchildren, Cullen, Cameron (Taryn), Nicholas (Nonarae), Benjamin, Kamariah (Timothy), Keoni (Annie), Tynesha, Tamela (Kenyna), and Morgan; her great-grandchildren, Veronica, Grace, Calvin, Cynthia, Brynnlee, and Beckett. She is also survived by her sisters Joyce (late Gerald), Darlene, and Sylvia (John); her brothers Harley (Betty), Herbert (Debra), and Wayne (Kathy); her sister-in-law Violet (late Orvel); and by many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Clarence; her brothers, Ralph, Gordon, Orvel, Richard, Donald, Joseph, and Patrick; her sisters, Anna Mae, Janet, Deloris, Irma, and Malinda; Clarence's sisters and brothers-in-law; and other family members.

Audrey's celebration of life will be held Saturday, January 31, 2026. Visitation will be held 9:30 to 11 am with a Christian funeral service to follow at Resurrection Presbyterian Church 1205

Congress Avenue, Oshkosh, WI 54901. A private interment will take place at Old Settlers Rest at a later date.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial donations be made in Audrey's name to Resurrection Presbyterian Church where she was a member, the Oshkosh Senior Center where she loved to meet friends and play games, or the National Psoriasis Foundation, to support a condition she struggled with over her lifetime.

The family extends their heartfelt gratitude to the compassionate medical staff at Ascension Columbia St. Mary's Hospital, Milwaukee Campus, and to Fiss & Bills Poklasny Funeral Home in Oshkosh for their care and support.

My Journey

Upon a farm with fields so wide,
A strong girl grew, with eyes like the tide,
With siblings near, they toiled in the sun,
In laughter and toil, their days were spun.
Her hands embraced the earth so fair,
In gardens lush, with tender care,
She crafted meals that filled the air,
With love in each dish, a feast to share.
With yarn in hand, her fingers danced,
In crocheted warmth, her heart entranced,
She planned adventures, roads to roam,
Camping 'neath stars, her spirit's home.
Though life was a puzzle, she solved with grace,
In games of skill, she'd challenge each face,
A ruthless player, yet kind at her core,
With wine in hand, they'd laugh and explore.
Yet more than crafts or games she'd weave,
Was the love for her children, their hearts she'd cleave,
She taught them the joys of learning each day,
With selfless devotion, she'd light their way.
God's hand guided her through each strife,
A beacon of hope in the journey of life,

OCT 20, 1938 - DEC 28, 2025

As seasons would change and years would unfold,
Her faith stood firm, a story retold.
Now time with friends, her joyous delight,
In gatherings warm, hearts shining bright,
A legacy built on love and grace,
In every embrace, a cozy place.
So cheers to the woman, steadfast and true,
A life spent in kindness, where love always grew,
With a heart open wide and joy like a song,
A beacon of strength, where we all belong.

Ben Clausing posted:

I can remember as a kid so young wild and free the imagination lead me as my cousins and brother and I would play for hours in our grandmas basement. Or how we would go to the park and pretend to be lost boys and girls from Neverland and we would run around the playground and our grandma chase us pretending to be the crocodile trying to grab our feet. 🐊 And how during the holidays we would all gather around a table with so many different dishes the amazing aromas filling the house and the fresh baked homemade pies. One thing that I can say throughout the years no matter how far or near I was I always knew my grandma loved me and her love for me was like no other. It was never ending it was always there. And the last time I saw her I hadn't seen her in a while and she hugged me with an embrace and you could just feel that the love has always been there and will never leave. I love you Grandma. Your human vessel has come to pass but your loving memory will forever live on and lastMay your spirit and soul be free for all eternity
