Suzanne Stadtmueller sent a virtual gift in honor of Kathleen.

Our sister in-law Kathleen M. Stadtmueller, we shared so many moments in 50 years with Kathleen and Edward. Mike helping Ed with farm choices. I remember going to see Ricky Nelson Concert in Green Bay with Kathleen, she made sure we were front seats. Going to EAA and seeing Kathleen selling brochures and working for The Pioneers. Wow, she sure did get sunburned. We shared breakfasts for many years at Delta Restaurant with Ed and Kathleen after church on Sundays. We shared many a meal with both at our home. We were glad to see Kathleen before she passed when she could talk to us and she knew what she wanted to say. Kathleen will be missed especially at EAA time, she so looked forward to seeing people who camped there for many years. Kathleen was a caring, loving, but a disciplined woman. She worked very hard from teenager to adult and retired from Bell Telephone as very accomplished employee. We Love and will miss you Kathleen, but we know You and Ed are looking down on your children, grand-children, great-grand-children with a Big Smile that you did well here on Earth and God has brought you to HEAVEN. Love Suzanne and Michael Stadtmueller

Aunt Kathleen was an outstanding lady who lived a life defined by grace, resilience, and service to others. Her legacy of kindness will continue to inspire all who knew her. I will never forget the memories of Friday night's at the farm. She always hosted our family and after Uncle Ed ♥ was done with his chores, he'd join us. We would sit around the TV and watch AWA All-Star wrestling, good times! Friday night memories of our youth. With respect and love, Wendy Tuite

Bunny Baier Boelter posted:

Kathleen or better known as Sam to many was an exceptional woman who turned no one away. Always sheltering her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She was a very private person, but always welcoming. May God be with all her children, grandchildren, and many others during this time. Bunny Boelter, neighbor and friend.
