

Kenneth Chivington

August 15, 1934 - January 12, 2022

Kenneth W. Chivington, age 87, passed away on Jan. 12, 2022 at Bethel Home.

Ken was born on Aug. 15, 1934, the son of Harry and Margie (Eichstadt) Chivington. His siblings were Lee, Delores and James.

He married Karla Drexler on Dec. 26, 1959. Together they had two children. Karla preceded him in death on Nov. 13, 2020.

Ken was a member of the Air Force. He was employed by the Post Office as a mail carrier for many years. After taking an early retirement, Ken and Karla spent many winter months traveling to Gulf Port, MS where they enjoyed the beautiful weather, the beach and many trips to the casino. Ken was a loving, devoted husband and an incredible dad. He was an amazing 'Buppa' to his four grandchildren.

Ken is survived by his daughter Mary (Dan) Konrad, son Glen (Gina) Chivington, grandsons; David (Megan) Chivington, Michael (Morgan) Chivington, and Nathan (Emily) Konrad and granddaughter; Meredith (Dallas III) Laramore. He is further survived by four great-grandchildren; Olivia Chivington, Finley and Duncan Chivington and Dallas Laramore IV.

Our family would like to thank the entire staff at Bethel Home for the wonderful care, compassion and support shown to Ken and our family. We would also like to thank Aurora Hospice staff for the additional cares and support provided to Ken and our family.

Dad is now with mom enjoying their heavenly Gulf Port Beach with a cold Mickey's in hand

In respect to Ken's wishes, no service will be held.
