“ Before I had my first horse, I used to love when Mary Jo would talk lovingly of hers. She was a gentle, kind soul who made you feel good just to be around her, no matter what the subject of conversation or the job at hand happened to be.

Mary Jo was special to everyone who knew her or worked with her. She was a caring and compassionate friend and coworker. She will be missed by all of us that knew her. We all loved to listen to the stories she told us, and we were lucky to have shared that part of her. Rest in peace and know you were loved.

MaryJo you were like a ray of sunshine . I'm thinking it's been thirty five years of having a long distance friendship . Know matter how many day's or months would go by when we picked up the phone it was like it was yesterday. Your the kinda friend that never leaves one heart. I will always be thankful for all the years and long distance phone calls we've shared . Rest in peace & know you will be missed very much my beautiful friend . Love you more 🥺🙏
