“ Ronnie was a awesome neighbor, we always had alot of laughing,goofy around outside he would remind me when my bird feeders were low of seed, if i was not at home he would fill them,always tease me about me planting more flowers in my yard, we would help each other out with whatever we needed help with, My basset hound Lulu loved ronnie she always knew when he would bring the newspaper over there were dog treats in the bag, lulu knew she would get her back rubs, alot of time with ronnie,she would go in the house and run to the computer corner ronnie was there,she had both ronnie and Barb wrapped around her paw. Ronnie now you can do whatever you want ,you have your angel wings. I willl miss you but i know you are not hurting anymore, so you feed your birds and squirrels, and whatever you want. I will always have a special part of my heart for you.

“ I lost my husband Paul, Ronnie's brother in 1979. Since then Ronnie has never forgotten me. He would stop over at our house often to chit chat and catch up with family and his own medical troubles. In all that time he never complained. He was always positive and upbeat about his life. He would help me pull the weeds from my planter when he saw me out front. We would sit and pull weeds and talk. What wonderful memories I have of him and his family. Ron enjoy heaven now with all who have gone before you. Give them all a hug from me and tell them I love them. Rest in peace now. You certainly deserve it.
